

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Seminar in Narrative Medicine (non-clinic)

Overarching Goals	Elective objectives: By the end of the rotation, students will be expected to:	Where/how taught (location or learning activity)	Taught by	How student's achievement of objective is assessed (assessment method)	How feedback is given (feedback method)
5	Student will describe the skills required for the practice of narrative medicine - close reading, reflective writing, and group discussion.	Sterling Hall of Medicine (333 Cedar Street)	Course instructor	Formative feedback	Oral and Written
5	Student will practice techniques for self-reflection in order to improve their own self-understanding and awareness	Sterling Hall of Medicine (333 Cedar Street)	Course instructor	Writing assignments, formative feedback	Oral and Written
5, 6	Student will develop a deeper understanding of the relationship between medicine and literature by reading a diverse body of work	Sterling Hall of Medicine (333 Cedar Street)	Course instructor	Reading assignments, formative feedback	Oral and Written
5, 7	Student will apply important communication skills in a group setting as they listen actively and share their personal stories	Sterling Hall of Medicine (333 Cedar Street)	Course instructor	Formative feedback	Oral and Written
4, 5, 6	Student will expand clinical empathy and improve their approach to patient-centered care as they examine and reflect on the patient perspective	Sterling Hall of Medicine (333 Cedar Street)	Course instructor	Reading and writing assignments, formative feedback	Oral and Written

YSM Overarching Goals: https://medicine.yale.edu/education/curriculum/Goals%20and%20Principles_268834_284_26474.pdf